

[Type here]

Charitable Foundation in Kerala

Charitable organisations can be set up under various laws depending on the nature of the entity and the state in which the organisation is being set up. The primary function of a charitable organisation is to give benefit to the public by performing worthy causes that helps the public at large.

We focuses on the rights and empowerment of children, women and senior citizens, and seeks to stimulate creative discussions for holistic solutions. Includes awareness campaigns, outreach initiatives, and special programmes that can create an impact on the social psyche.

Atma Foundation care for child betterment:

ATMA GURUKULAM

ATMA Gurukulam is a Home for girls in need of care and protection – underprivileged girls who have no safe home, no supporting parents, who are from families in conflict, who have no means for education, etc. We focuses on the education and overall development of the girls. The vision is to enable them to transform into responsible and responsive citizens of the society, and leaders in their chosen fields.

ATMA Foundation has a team of committed volunteers who devote their time, resources and expertise to support the children of ATMA Gurukulam.

ATMA RAILWAY CHILD HELP DESK

The Railway Child Help Desk (RCHD) is a joint initiative of Ministry of Women and Child Development and Ministry of Railways to ensure the care and protection, security and well-being of run-away, unaccompanied and trafficked children who come in contact with the railways. ATMA Foundation is the collaborative partner of Childline India Foundation for the implementation of Railway Child Help Desk service in Thrissur District.

ATMA Foundation extends support to the various stakeholders in the Railway Station premises, and the inhabitants of the Railway Colony. This includes initiatives like distribution of free school kits to the children in the Railway colony, grocery kits to the daily wage workers, etc.

We committed to empowering individuals and families to lead happier lives with healthier relationships, and to bring positive change in the community. We work for the improvement of the society through our charitable function.